DRY AGENT FINED $100 BY MAYOR

Holds That W. C. Hall Had No Authority to Break Into Cupboard

SCENE IN THE COURT

Executive Points Out That Warrant Called Upon Chief of Police and Not Prohibition Officer to Search

Danville, Va., July 25.—Prohibition Inspector W. C. Hall was yesterday morning fined $100 by Mayor Wooding for breaking into the city's liquor store cupboard and seizing confiscated liquor in the name of the prohibition department. Hall, quivering with anger, restored sharply to the Mayor and then noted an appeal. His bond was $150, which was put up by W. M. Snead. Early yesterday afternoon Mayor Wooding announced that he had decided to allow Hall to bring in witnesses, and so the case will be resumed today.

Men who have followed the placid proceedings in the Mayor's Court for many years, said today that they rarely saw the judicial calm of the veteran Mayor so perturbed and it was evident from the moment of the convening of court that there was thunder in the air.

"Where is Inspector Hall?" were about the first words which the court spoke.

"Send for him and bring him into court."

"By what authority did you break into the city storehouse in this room and seize liquor?" the Mayor asked Hall as soon as he appeared.

"By the warrant you signed yourself and gave me Wednesday" the officer wickly replied.

Mayor Wooding then handed him the warrant and told him to read it. It developed that this document called upon the chief of police or "some other officer of the City of Danville." to execute the warrant. When the inspector had read that far Mayor Wooding interposed "Are you an officer of this city?" Hall made a negative reply.

"We 'll fine Mr. Hall $100 and call another case."

The inspector who was formerly a member of the Danville police force, showed his anger plainly. He told the court that he would take an appeal. Captain Wooding did not let the case rest there, but continued to ply questions. He asked Hall if he had taken out any more liquor besides that which he mentioned. Hall rose to his feet, and flung at the court the following words:

"Look here, it's no use you and me arguing this question here. I told you what I was going to do—I did it: you've fined me for it, and I've taken an appeal; haven't I?"

The court's rejoinder was quick.

"Yes, but you can't come around here and break open doors while I'm around."

City Sergeant Boisseau was brought in as a witnessess ,and it developed that he did not know how much liquor had been turned over to him. Mayor Wooding incredulous at first, said:

"Don't you think you had better count it." and the officer answered, "I guess so."

Chief of Police Bell was also grilled. He was asked if he had refused Hall access to the cupboard, which question was countered by the statement:

'He never asked for the keys."

Hall issued a long statement, stating that he was acting under orders.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Libby Warren who departed this life one year ago tomorrow

In all this world in haunts most rare,
We find no one like mother,
Her arms outstretched with loving care
She clings as does no other.
She has gone where souls hath rest,
And the cares of life are done,
Where the ones who loved her best
May meet her one by one.

OPPOSES RESERVATIONS

Nevada Senator Says Changes In Treaty Would Encourage Other Nations to Act

Any reservations in enate ratification of the peace treaty would reopen the whole field of negotiation, encourage other nations to make reservations and renew international dissension, declared Senator Pittman of Nevada, Democratic member of the Foreign Relations Committee, in an address yesterday in the Senate.

"Think you, that the Italian Parliament, having the opportunity by reopening of negotiations, would hesitate to place in the treaty reservations which they believe are necessary to protect her interests at Fiume Dalmatia and along the Adriatic, when we had set the example?

'Would there be cause for surprise if, in the circumstances, the Parliament of Great Britain should feel justified in adding a reservation to the treaty when it goes back to them to the effect that the clause providing for limitation of naval armament shall not, by reason of Great Britain peculiar situation, apply to that Government?

"Unless we approve this treaty as it stands, then we open the door to all of the disastrous possibilities of renewed international dissension.

"Speaking purely as an American, I believe that our nation will be in as much danger as any other country in the world if this treaty fails."

DETAILS MADE PUBLIC

New York, July 26.—Details of the lynching in Milan, Ga., May 24 of Berry Washington, 72 years old, a negro, for having killed John Dandy a white man, in defense of two young negro women, reported in dispatches from Atlanta Thursday night, were contained in the sworn statement of a negro clergyman, whose name was withheld, made public here recently by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The clergyman's report stated that at 1 a. m. on May 24 Dandy and another white man went into the negro section of the town and demanded entrance to the home of Emma Mcollers, a negress with two daughters.

Admission was refused the clergyman stated, and Dandy fired a shot through the door, The girls fled to the home of a neighbor.

The white men, the report continued, chased the girls who hid under the porch. When the girls refused to come out the men broke down the door and started tearing up the floor. The widow became frightened and jumped into a well while her children screamed for help.

Washington, the affidavit stated, ran out of the house with a shotgun in his hand and when asked by the white men what he wanted, he is reported to have said:

"To see what is the matter with the women and children."

Dandy, the negro minister alleged, threatened to kill Washington but the latter fired first and killed Dandy, while the other man ran away.

Washington gave himself up to the police, the report said, and was lodged in McCrae jail. At midnight a mob between 75 and 100 men took Washington out of jail and carried him to Milan ,where he was lynched over the spot where Dandy was killed.

TO TOUR THE U. S. FOR THE LEAGUE

Senate Will Get Treaty From President Upon His Return

TO GREET THE FLEET

Will Do Most of Talking on His Return From the Western Coast—Retention of Text Causes Little Intere

President Wilson's proposed tour of the country on behalf of the league of nations and the peace treaty is now a certainty. The itinerary will be made public within a few days, it was announced at the White House yesterday.

The President will not submit the pact of the Franco-American treaty to the Senate until his return to Washington, which may be sir weeks hence, as he expects to leave about August 8, and the trip will be from three to four weeks in the making.

The President will greet the new Pacific fleet at San Francisco, August 15, Secretary of the Navy Daniels said yesterday. If present plans are adhered to the President will do the bulk of his talking on his return from the coast.

The President's action in deciding to retain the text of the French treaty until his return to Washington aroused little interest in the Senate.

The Senators take the position, it was pointed out, that it does not concern them whether the President sends the treaty now or reserves it for a later date, as they have overcome the obstacle of ignorance of its contents by obtaining a copy for themselves, and having it inserted in the Record.

TO HEAD OFF FLU

Representative Fess Urges Congress Provide Fund to Fight Disease

An appropriation of $1,500,000 to prevent the recurrence of the influenza epidemic in this country is provided by a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Fess.

"The all-important thing now is to find a cure for the disease. This will require expersive research and I propose that the money shall be expended under the direction of the Public Health Service.

"There is a general belief in the medical world that the second and third years will show frightful after efects unless specific remedies can be found. But the appalling loss of 500,000 lives, five times our loss in the war, with assurance that the plague will appear again is enough to arouse us to immediate action."

Senator Harding has introduced a similar measure in the Senate.

Reports from New York and Chicago says that experts in those cities share Fess' views on the situation and approve of his effort.

ALL MIGHT OWN HOMES

During the latter part of this week the Gazette has urged the importance of building dwelling houses in Alexandria. The demand now far exceeds the supply, and by the close of the year conditions will be much graver.

Many of our people already own their homes, but it can be said without fear of contradiction that equally as many more are in positions to build more houses. In this way they could do their part toward meeting present and future requirements.

There is much surplus capital in this community, mostly in bank deposits, a large percentage of which is in comparatively small amounts, but in sufficient sums in many cases to enable the depositors to begin the work of building.

There are plenty of building lots in Alexandria, and the fact that labor and materials are high should not be urged as an excuse, as there is no reason to suppose that either will decline materially in the near future. It must be remembered, too, that though it may cost more now to erect buildings than it did a decade ago, rents are at the high-water mark.

It is urged in answer to our suggestions that money can be invested more profitly in bonds and stocks than in bricks and mortar.

This may be so, but stocks and bonds and other intangible property often, as is the case with riches, take unto themselves wings, while real estate remains.

Half a century ago there were probably a dozen building associations in Alexandria. Many persons still living acquired the homes they now enjoy through those institutions. They were enabled to pay for their homes in rent, that is so much a month. While some building associations exist at present, the eager spirit to purchase stock, borrow money and erect homes is by no means as pronounced as it was shortly after the close of the civil war.

A practical Alexandria financier, long since gathered to the fathers, said in a public place upon one occasion: "Building societies are bulwarks in every community. The working man who borrows money and builds his home is careful for whom he votes. He will never be an anarchist nor interested in suspicious movements inaugurated generally by people who carry all they possess upon their backs. Owners of homes, in short, are among the best citizens."

After the Napoleonic wars England's indebtedness amounted to eight hundred million dollars sterling. Consols which were subsequently placed upon the market paid a small rate of interest, but they were made to appeal to the working man and those having but small capital. "Put your money in the funds" became the slogan in Great Britain. This colossal debt could have been wiped out years ago, but far-seeing English statesmen were aware of the fact that every man who owned a consol was naturally a defender of the government. It is this policy, many believe, which has kept the British Empire intact lo these many years.

The same principle applies to owners of homes. Such will not be found in the ranks of Bolshevists. They believe in law and order for their own protection.

FUTURE MERCHANT MARINE

Shipbuilding in the United States has been given a tremendous impetus by the late war. Three new marine monsters now lie at the pier of the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation at this place flying the Stars and Stripes and hailing from Alexandria. A fourth will be floating in the Potomac within a week. Work upon others is being speeded at the plant, where between 2,500 and 3,000 men are employed.

The vessels launched at Alexandria are oil-burners and have been constructed as freighters, but it is planned to build the largest passenger vessels afloat in the United States, and pictures of the proposed ships are now appearing in the papers. They will have four smokestacks, will be thoroughly modern and surpass the historic "Great Eastern" in size.

The ships will be 1000 feet in length, 50 feet larger than the "Leviathan," at present the largest ship afloat. The new ships will have a speed of 30 knots, enabling them to cross the Atlantic in 4 days. This speed will be secured from oil burning engines, engines of 110,000 horse power, and four propellers. The vessels which will be convertible into commerce destroyers in time of war, have a cruising radius of 7000 miles. They will carry 3000 passengers. Each ship has 10 decks.

The Philadelphia Inquirer in this connection says:

"So far the Shipping Board has paid no attention to passenger vessels comparable to the famous flyers like the Mauretania or the Olympic. The announcement from Washington that two ships, larger and faster than any that now cross the Atlantic, are soon to be built, shows that it realizes the necessity of thus adding prestige to the American merchant marine. Their fuel capacity, of the proposed ships, it is stated, will enable them to make a round trip without reloading. And the fuel is to be oil, which will give them a distinct advantage over coal-burners. All things considered, the American flag ought to have a future on the sea worthy of its glorious past."

U. S. SIBERIAN ARMY TO STAY

President Tells Senate It Will Remain to Protect Railroad

Washington, July 26.—President Wilson yesterday advised the Senate that the American military expedition in Siberia was there primarily to protect and maintain operation of the Siberian Railroad and indicated that the expedition would remain as long as protection was necessary. Another purpose of the expedition, as outlined by the President, was to give relief to the Russian people in Siberia by supplying food, clothing and other supplies. Mr. Wilson said there was no intention of interfering with Russian sovereignty.

The retention of American troops to protect American railroad forces under John F. Stevens, the President's letter stated, is a "vital element." By agreement with Japan, the President stated, the American troops are to remain there as long as the railroad expedition is engaged in maintaining operation.

The President's communication detailing at great length the activities of the American military and railroad forces in Siberia, was in response to a resolution of Senator Johnson, Republican, of California, inquiring regarding the American policy in Siberia and how long it was proposed to retain the troops here.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As to Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache and bearing down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then it would last two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three. I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children. Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

BEATS FARMER WITH PIPE

Wicomico County, Md., Man Accused of Crushing Neighbor's Skull

Salisbury, Md., July 26.—In an altercation yesterday between two farmers and land owners in the eastern section of Wicomico county, Curtis Gordy it is charged, attacked William Laws with a piece of iron pipe. Laws is in the Peninsula General Hospital, with a crushed skull, and Gordy is in the county jail awaiting the result of his injury.

Both of these farmers live near Wango, this county. It appears that Laws was hauling a load of corn to market, over an old road through the Gordy farm. The road, although not a public one, has been used by the public for 50 years or more. Some years ago the two men quarreled over some farm machinery, and have since ignored each other. Yesterday Laws was stopped by Gordy, who denied him the use of the road and ordered him to turn back.

Laws, without any show of temper according to witnesses, stated it was impossible to turn around on account of wet conditions, and said he was going to proceed on his way. Gordy is then said to have seized a piece of iron pipe and charged Laws, felling him to the ground and beating him till neighbors arrived.

An automobile was obtained and Laws was rushed to the hospital where a nperation was performed, he is now hovering between life and death.

Gordy is denied bail, pending the outcome of Laws' injuries. Laws is single, Gordy has a wife and four children.

GETS DEATH PENALTY

Negro Bandit Accused of Killing Wife of Richmond Grocer

Richmond, Va., July 26.—Clifton Allen, a negro, 24 years old, was yesterday convicted of first degree murder and given the death penalty when tried in the Hustings Court on the charge of fatally shooting Mrs. Rosa Bicoff, while trying to rob her husband, Sam Bicoff, in his grocery at 1001 West Monroe street, on May 24 last. It was alleged that Allen entered the place masked and shot Mrs. Bicoff when she rushed to the assistance of her husband, just as he was commanded to give up the contents of the cash drawer.

Sam Hill, another negro, charged jointly with Allen, turned State's evidence and was used as a Commonwealth's witness. The two negroes were arrested in the city jail several weeks after the hold-up while being imprisoned for another robbery.

ITALIAN AND SLAVS CLASH

Twelve Killed in Battle at Volosca, Near Fiume

Laibach, Austria, July 26.—Eight Italian carabineers and four Jugo-Slavs were killed in a clash at Volosca, near Fiume, yesterday, according to a dispatch from Agram.

The encounter was said to have occurred after the Italians tried to break up a meeting called to consider sending Slav children to Crotio so that they would not have to attend Italian schools.

NATURE PROVIDES THE INGREDIENTS

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy, Now Endorsed by Local People

If the digestive rgans are not properly performing the work which nature has assigned to them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to the recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach digests the food, the blood absorbs and carries the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the various organs to properly perform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy, which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive qualities are so pronounced that beneficial results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefited thereby.

It is dispensed by Richard Gibson and the Rexall Store.

REO

Announcing a New Reo Model

A "Six"

You are accustomed to look upon a motor car bearing the name REO as something substantially standard rather than novel. In the long history of this company REO models have been to build, not something different, but something better. The splendid reputation of the REO product enjoys is largely the result of that policy.

Insofar as the science has advanced and REO engineering has kept pace, we believe you will find this a better REO. You will find in this new model those features ardently desired by many REO distributors and a large percentage of the select REO cleintele.

The motor is a SIX. Call it a "light six" if the term pleases you. We maintain, however, that beyond a certain point, lightness is incompatible with longevity a= LOW UP KEEP. Too many cars are light to the point of flimsiness. REO designed, the dimensions of this new SIX guarantee that surplus power you have learned to expect in a REO.

Clean-cut in design, rugged in construction, it possesses at the same time great flexibility and great "lugging" power. Outwardly it is entirely different—but close examination will disclose a pleasing rearrangement of those distinctly REO features without which you would not expect to find that performance, that durability and economy that are REO attributes. Body design is new—of course.

New bodies are not unusual. This new REO SIX will strike you as singularly beautiful and in excelient taste. A demonstration of this car will give you an idea of the only real surprise the REO engineers have prepared for you in this new REO SIX.

WILLIAM FARNUM
DIRECTION WILLIAM FOX

RICHMOND—Wm. Farnum

William Farnum will be the attraction at the Richmond Theatre, tonight in the William Fox production, "The Lone Star Ranger," a dramatization of the novel of that name by Zane Grey, author of "Riders of the Purple Sage" and "The Rainbow Trail"—in picturization of which Mr. Farnum has appeared with such marked success.

"The Lone Star Ranger," is a stirring tale of the exploits of a member of the Texas Rangers, who single handed breaks up the strong hold of a bank of cattle rustlers.

The scenic effects that frame the intense dramatic action of this story were photographed in picturesque mountain fastnesses and on the desert.

INGOMAR—J. Warren Kerrigan

"The Best Man," starring J. Warren Kerrigan, will be seen at the Ingomar Theatre tonight.

"The Best Man" is a five reel drama that gets its plot from the theft of important papers from the Secret Service Department in Washington.

The manner in which Mr. Kerrigan as Cyril Gordon, the secret service agent, secures the stolen papers, becomes complicated in a wedding ceremony and finally returns with the missing documents—and a bride to his chief, offers a combination of thrilling scenes, not without humor, that is bound to grip and please every moving picture audience.

GRAND THEATRE

Priscilla Dean, one of Universal City's most popular and beautiful stars, will be featured in "Kiss or Kill," the thrilling Universal Special Attraction which comes to the Grand Theatre tonight.

The role of a girl who found herself attracted to a self-confessed burglar, even at the moment that he was holding her up in her room, is portrayed by beautiful Priscilla Dean in "Kiss or Kill," which comes to the Grand Theatre. Also Fatty Arbuckle.

NOW IS THE TIME

To Build Up Permanently. Nature at Its Best as an Aid.

If you who are weak, nervous and run down from over-work, worry of any other cause would only realize that the summer months is the time to build up strength and vigor there would not be so many collapses and rushing for aid during the winter.

The plan to follow is simple: plenty of rest and good wholesome food along with a strength-creating body- building tonic, Chasco-Vin with its Iron, Manganese, Hypophosphites, Nux and other strength making ingredients, is the tonic we suggest.

If you follow this plan carefully you will notice a wonderful improvement in two weeks time. But don't give up too soon.

The Local agent for Chasco-Vin is Edgar Warfield, Jr., King and Pitt Streets.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
